Say 'NO' to Ragging

IF YOU ARE A JUNIOR

RAGGING IS NEITHER A RITUAL NOR A CUSTOM IN CAMPUS LIFE

- You don't have to submit to ragging in any form
- Do not compromise with your dignity & self respect
- Report incidents of ragging of your self or of others
- Contact the Anti-Ragging Committee, Anti ragging squads of the institution, Hostel-Warden or the Head of the institution. If situations are obliged to permit use of communication facilities (landline and mobile phones) for seeking help
- If you are not satisfied with the enquiry conducted by the institution, lodge a First Information Report (FIR) with the local police and complaint with the civil authorities
- Institutions are in any case required to file FIR if your parents or you are dissatisfied with the action taken against those who 'rag'
- Your complaint can be oral or written, and would be treated by the authorities in strict confidence.
- Take active part in all institutional activities intended to end ragging on campuses
